Night Life Orgies Result In Arrest Of Three Boys

FOOTPADS REALIZE $90 IN ROBBERY OF SIX BELLS CAFE

Charles Kieffer Lodged in Jail on Charge of Incest

EL CERRITO IS SCENE OF BOLD HOLDUP BY 2 BANDITS

The soft drink emporium at Central and San Pablo avenues, formerly the old Six Bells Cafe, at El Cerrito, was held up early last evening by two footpads, and Harry Milne, the owner of the place was relieved of $50, and Joe Chevotawith, who conducts a shoe repair shop next door was compelled to give up $40.

After threatening their two victims the two bandits jumped into a Dodge car, that they had left near by and speeded away toward Oakland. The police forces of the east bay cities are searching for the men.

It was only a few weeks ago that the Fairmont cafe on Fairmont avenue was held up in a similar manner. Those present at the time were lined up against the wall, and all of their valuables taken.

While Milne was reading a newspaper about 9:30 last evening the door opened and two short men, wearing grey caps, makinaw coats, and with masks, made out of stockings, over their faces, suddenly appeared thru the door, and pointing revolvers at him ordered "Hands

Subway Work Will Start in A Short Time

Just what will be done with pedestrian traffic ,during the period that the improvement of the subway is under way, is a question that City Manager J. A. McVittie asked the council last night.

Vehicular traffic can be diverted to other streets, and street car traffic can be taken care of by having half of the work done at a time.

It is the opinion of members of the council, that a temporary structure to take care of pedestrians will have to be constructed, and the matter was turned over to the city manager to see what arrangements can be made.

It is believed that every obstacle has now been removed so that the subway work can proceed very soon.

Harry R. Lamster to Tell Lions About Transbay Bridge

At the luncheon of the Richmond Den of Lions today, G. E. Milnes will be the chairman of the day, and the speaker will be Harry R. Lamster of San Francisco, who will talk on the subject "The transbay bridge and what it means to the development of the east bay section."

Lamster is an interesting speaker, and has many facts in connection with the gigantic project, that are of vital interest to everyone.

Plans for the attending of the International Association of Lions clubs to be held in Oakland July 19th to the 22nd will also be perfected at this time.

CLAIM MADE ASSESSMENT FOR COUNTY IS TOO LARGE

In a communication to the city council last evening Harry W. Wernse made the statement that the county assessment on Richmond property is higher than it should be, and the result in this city is paying more that its just proportion of the expenses of the county. His contention is that the county assessment in this city should be reduced about 20 per cent by the supervisors sittin g as a board of equalization.

There was much discussion over the matter by the council, and a committee consisting of City Treasurer I. R. Vaughn, assessor J. O. Ford, manager J. A. McVittie and H. W. Wernse was appointed to gather data and present it to the supervisors.

The letter of Mr. Wernse reads as follows:

"On examining the Richmond tax assessmeent in Martinez I find that the City of Richmond is not being assessed by the County according to benefits.

"In all other cities in the State (I mention a few that I have examined myself, viz., San Diego, Stockton, Sacramento, Oakland, and Eureka) city property is assessed for county purposes not over 60 per cent of the assessment for city purposes, the counties realizing that the cities necessarily must raise more revenue to carry on their business ,and not wishing to penalizing the cities, have kept the assessment reduced proportionateely.

"In Richmond property is assessed by the county at between 80 and 90 per cent of the city assessment, and the money which we pay the county is not being used solely for the benefit of our city, therefore our assessment for county purposes is too high, and I feel sure that if your honorable body will appoint a committee and ask the citizens to join you, we can go before the Board of Equalization and have our assessed value reduced, thereby reducing the amount of taxes we will have to pay the County.

"This is of vital interest to the entire City of Richmond, more particularly to the industries, and I am willing to lend whatever assistance I can in getting this reduction.

Very respectifully yours,
H. W. WERNSE.

WAD OF MONEY ON HAND IN THE CITY TREASURY

The report of City Treasurer I. R. Vaughn, read to the council last evening shows there is $320,977.96 on hand.

THREE YOUTHS ARRESTED AND PUT IN JAIL RAPE CHARGE

Three youths are in the Martinez jail today as the result of fresh developments in the case of Alma Kangas and Mamie Kangas, the two Berkeley girls who were abducted from their home several nights ago by a man who impersonated a police officer and held them prisoner all night in the hills east of Richmond.

The three youths, Tony Costa, 17, Tony Miller, 17, and Joseph Linness, 26, were brought to Richmond early yesterday afternoon after being arrested by the Berkeley police. Mamie Kangas, who is 15 years old, swore out a complaint against them, charging them with rape.

The youths were questioned by Sheriff R. R. Veale and H. V. Alvarado, deputy district attorney, regarding the charge. Alvarado says they have confessed and will plead guilty at their hearing in the Superior court.

Wild night parties, joy rides and unrestrained frequenting of dance halls figured in the story of the Kangas girl. She claimed that on April 24, 1920, she was taken in an auto by the men to Pinole, where she was attacked.

Mrs. Mamie Kangas, 2809 Ninth street, Berkeley, the mother of the girls, complained to the police last Friday morning that her daughters had been spirited away from their home the night before by a man dressed like a police officer, who claimed he was investigating their connection with night life. Early in the morning the girls were returned, with a harrowing tale of their experience.

Four other youths of various ages were also arrested in Berkeley. They were implicated by stories told by the Kangas girls and another Berkeley girl of orgies and attacks said to have extended over a considerable period of time.

GARBAGE CONTRACT IS SIGNED BY COUNCIL

The ten year contract for the disposal o fthe garbage of the city was signed up by the council with the Richmond Scavenger company last night.

APPLIES FOR PERMIT FOR SOFT DRINK PLACE

Fred E. Hilton of 1612 Macdonald avenue has applies to the council for a permit to conduct a cigar stand and soft drink establishment at that number.

ARRIVE PORT AND FIND NO WAGES 14 FOR MONTHS HERE

Dewey and M. K. Noell and P. Archer, Richmond boys, have just returned from a trip of fourteen months on the shipping board bark "Moshulu." They arrived in San Francisco July 5th, and they wail long and loud, and it seems with just cause.

When they asked Captain F. O. Parker for their money, they were told that the agents in New York who were operating the vessel were in financial difficulties, and no wages could be paid.

There were 24 of the boys before the mast, their wages for a time was $30 per month, and then it was increased, and nearly everyone of them has from $300 to $400 due them.

Finally to see if they could not secure their money Attorney A. Lillick of San Francisco was employed yesterday, and he will proceed to libel the vessel.

The boys tell a story of hardship, while on the trip which took in Manila, ports in Australia and other countries, that seems incredible.

AMERICAN LEGION TEAM IS DEFEATED, 12 TO 9

The baseball team of the local post of the American Legion was defeated Sunday in a game featured by heavy hitting, with the Richmond club team of San Francisco as victors. The score was 12 to 9.

Asks Council To Revoke the Permit 2 Places

John M. Brooks of 3026 Cutting Boulevard and F. G. Padghet on Macdonald avenue, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets, who conducts a cigar stand and soft drink parlors have been cited to appear before the council next Monday night and show cause why their permits should not be revoked.

Chief of Police Wood informed the council that both of the parties had pleaded guilty to bootlegging, and he did not think they should be permitted to continue in business.

Hutsons given Pleasant Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hutson on Soito avenue was the scene last Saturday night of a pleasant party tendered them by their friends and relatives. Cards and music constituted the entertainment of the evening, with refreshments at a late hour. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Topaz, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Madeen, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dooling, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vossbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Covell, Mr. and Mrs. J. Eads, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gilmore, Mrs. M. Madeen, Mrs. Thorson, Misses Lina Hutson, Goldie Magner and Irene Barstow.

STATEMENTS OF DAUGHTER PUTS FATHER BEHIND BARS

Little Bertha Kieffer, [illegible] years old, is in the detention home at the county hospital at Martinez, and her father Charles Kieffer of 541 A street is incarcerated in the county jail, with a charge of incest lodged against him.

The girl was taken to Martinez yesterday morning, by Constable Arthur Alstrom, and at noon when her father returned home from work, and not finding the daughter there, he inquired and ascertained that she had been taken to Martinez. He hired an automobile and made a quick trip to the county seat, and had not been there but a short time, when district attorney A. B. Tining ordereed him into custody, and telephoned to the police department here ordering that

OFFICIAL PAPER CITY OF RICHMOND

THINKOGRAPHS by F. J. HULANISKI

THE OUTLOOK IS BETTER

Now that the President has opened negotiations with England, France, Italy and Japan on the advisability of partial disarmament, the way is being paved for better times, industrially and commercially, in all those countries, as well as here. Hundreds of millions are being continually spent by our government for battleships and other war preparations, all of which is taxed out of the pockets of our people, until taxes have become so exorbitant that big business men have lost much incentive to try to do anything. What is the use of doing business at all if the profits of it are all grabbed by the government and burned up in powder? Many have invested their money in non-taxable securities and quit trying to do business, and they are hardly to be blamed.

The same must be true in the other countries, and there is no doubt but what they will all welcome an opportunity to lay off on the crazy war preparation they have been driving for some years past The business men of those countries have long ago petitioned their governments to do this very thing. The President's proposal is to hold a conference in Washington, to which all five countries shall send representatives, and that not only a cessation of armament be agreed upon but the Near East and Pacific policies of all be gone into and agreed upon, also. This will have a tendency to restore confidence and make business better, both here and abroad, and it ought to have been done long ago.

In spite of all this copious cant
It sure will be agreed
It is a friend in funds we want,
And not a friend in need.

Science indicates very strongly that our ancestors were fish, and a lot of us have not got over it yet.

Of course the recent prize fight was a ghastly exhibition, and brutal beyond words, but have not we as nations all been doing the same thing? The prize fighters slug each other into insensibility, while the nations do the same thing with guns and poisoned gas, and both have the same reasons—a desire to grab as of the much money and the world as is possible, murdering the other fellow to keep him from doing the same thing. We are civilized like lions and tigers and hyenas are.

One bedraggled individual whom the policeman had picked up asleep in the street, denied that he was intoxicated, so the judge fined him $5 for parking more than six inches from the curb.

"Their Majesties" the King and Queen of England, visited Belfast, Ireland, to open the new parliament there. We notice they didn't visit Ulster or the south part of the country—wonder why? Don't it make you weary to read in the papers about "Their Majesties?" Majesties fiddlesticks! If that ain't bunk what is it?

Atlantic City has passed an ordinance that does away with much of the bathing suit scenery hitherto prevailing. With all the dressed poultry shows on exhibition at home in every town, the necessity of going to Atlantic City or anywhere else is not obvious.

The House of Parliament of England is installing a "boudoir" for Lady Astor, the woman member. Probably our congress will have to do the same, and maybe some time we'll have a regular kimona soviet.

It is good philosophy to hand out a smile instead of a grouch. Sometimes it is hard to do when the pay check is not in sight, but the reverse of the rule does not speed up the pay check any. The Lord must pity a grouch, and mankind wisely passes him up.

IS PROHIBITION BENEFICIAL?

Mr. Hearst, in a signed editorial to his various papers, discusses prohibition, and the claims as to its being a benefit or an injury, deciding unanimously in its favor. His letter contains some facts which ought to be generally known, and some valuable information. For instance, relative to the claim of the liquor interests that prohibition was passed by an active minority, and that the majority were against it, it is shown that the reverse is true. Two-thirds of the congressional districts of the country had already gone dry by county and state law before congress ever voted the prohibition amendment to the constitution. Did you know that? Well, it is a fact, and proves that a majority of the people favor prohibition. The claim has also been made that in England and France, where there is no prohibition, drunkenness is exceedingly rare. This is proven, also, to be untrue, the reverse being a fact. In both those countries drunkenness is exceedingly frequent especially on wines and beer, where whole populations are dull and half stupid because of a perpetual souse on those liquors. The same was true in Germany for years before the war, and is yet. England is the worst alcohol country today in the world, and the masses of its people are degenerating because of excessive use of liquors, with poverty, illiteracy, drunkenness and a half doped mental condition resulting. Hearst claims the Chinese were doped that they might be robbed and that the common people of England are encouraged to drink ale and wines for the same reason. This is a new angle, but is interesting enough to be entitled to thought and investigation. Anyhow, America does not want to be doped, drugged, paralyzed or made inefficient and mentally "off."

The farmers have raised bumper crops this year, and at less cost to them than the crops of last year. Prices on most of the produce is looking up and the farmer, taking him the country over, is fast getting in better financial condition. This is a very healthful sign, for when the farmer is hit we are all hit, and hit hard. There is a new fifty million banker's pool to assist the livestock industry, and the government is aiding cotton growers to some extent, all of which stimulates industry. The railroads and the steel industry are getting their troubles mended, and the outlook now is that unemployment will be circumvented by the early fall.

Old Kaiser Bill kicks on Holland taxing his wealth, claiming he is not a voluntary resident of that country. They ought to take it all away from the old hound. He has many millions hid away in gold, ever bit of which he stole.

Ride on a train and buy some apricots from the news agent, and he will give your four half ripe ones for fifteen cents. The farmer who raised them would give you a whole hatful for a nickel, but the railroad, the news company, the commission man who bought them from the farmer, and the peanut boy all have to make their profit, which runs a penny's worth of fruit up to fifteen cents. Our system of distribution is sure great, the consumer standing no more show than a rabbit.

There are some bad rumors and reports out about what became of millions of dollars worth of supplies donated to the Red Cross for over seas work during the war. Several million dollars worth are said to be missing and no account ever made of it. This is the one institution the people still retain confidence in, and it should clear away these reports: If anything has been wrong it should be explained. The people do not want to lose confidence in the Red Cross.

We do not propose to get old as long as New Hampshire keeps right on calling herself new.

Dorothy Gish in "Miss Rebellion" at The Richmond

Comedy in Dorothy Gish's best and liveliest manner is the chief ingredient of "Little Miss Rebellion," which is at the Richmond T. & D. Theater today.

A lonely little grand duchess of a mythical European duchy is the central figure in the picture. The royal Miss finally breaks through the retainers who guard her and mingles with some ballplaying American soldiers. Thus she becomes acquainted with Sergeant Dick Ellis and attends a jazz ball with him. Then comes the revolution that sweeps the duchess from her throne and sends her flying, with a faithful old grenadier, to America. In New York she becomes chief flapjack mixer in a quick-lunch, and the reunion with Ellis, now in "cits," follows.

"Little Miss Rebellion" is chock full of laughs and thoroughly enjoyable entertainment. Miss Gish is supported by an excellent company, including Ralph Graves, eGorge Seigman, and Riley Hatch. George Fawcett directed the picture. It is a Paramount release.

An educational-scenic reel and a Fatty Arbuckle comedy complete the bill.

IS IT "LUST A COLD?"

..Richmond People Should Ask..
Richmond People Should Ask Themselves This Question.

Don't say: "It's just a cold."
It may turn into bachache, rheumatic aches, achy joints.
Or other serious sickness that comes from weak kidneys.

Colds are due to congestion.
Congestion makes the kidneys overwork to filter the blood.
Colds often leave the kidneys weak.
First break the cold;
Then use Doan's Kidney Pills to avert the kidney dangers.
Let this Richmond resident tell you about them.

Mrs. Sarah J. Kinney, 915 Seventh St, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for a long time. Whenever my kidneys trouble me, Doan's Kidney Pills .TTt.:c TTEAOIEE have always relieved me. The least cold I took settled on my kidneys and I had backaches that made me miserable. I become run down and often had to neglect my housework. My kidneys acted irregularly and annoyed me. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured from Lang's Drug Store, soon relieved these attacks and strengthened my back."

Building Permits Issued Increase in Month of July

That building in Richmond is now on the increase is indicated by the records of the office of L. Wierds, building and electrical inspection. Permits for buildings estimated to cost $15,275 have already been issued for the few days of the present month. During the month of June building estimates for the city were $8,763, according to the official report.

Some of the larger permits which have been issued this month are those issued to L. M. Buiech, one story frame dwelling, lot 23, block 122, between Roosevelt and Clinton, estimated to cost $3,300; C. Bercut, two story frame apartment, lot 29 and 30, block 122, north side of Roosevelt, estimated at $8,000; E. Kates, two story frame factory building, lot 28 and 29, block 81, between Chanslor and Ohio, estimated at $3,800.

Following are the permits issued for the month of June:

F. A. Reed, one story frame, lots 4 and 5, block 123, between Roosevelt and Clinton, cost $800; G. E. Lawrence, one story frame dwelling, lot 12, block 3, between Barrett and Roosevelt, $2,500; J. M. Downing, addition, lot 12, block 9, between Richmond and Buena Vista, $64; Ray Madeen, garage, lot 20, block 3, between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh, $59; J. G. Parlini, one story frame, lots 1 and 2, block 5, $500; B. Stocker, shed, lots 11 and 12, block 8, between Florida and Main, $75; R. Rohrer, garage, lot 14, block 24, between Main and Virginia; J. E. George, frame addition, lot 6, block 11, $130; Oliver Dowell, one story frame dwelling, lots 4 and 5, block 129, between Tenth and Eleventh, $4,000; L. N. Conley, one story frame dwelling, lots 7 and 8, block 5, $250; D. A. Schnider, garage, lot 1, block 64, $40; C. E. Burns, garage, lot 23, block 136, between Roosevelt and Clinton, $50; R. D. Rork, garage lot 15, block 26, between Barrett and Roosevelt, $80; S. B. Wilson, one story frame store house, lot 38, block 1, between Roosevelt and Clinton, $65; J. A. Schmidt, porch, lot 11, block 102, between Macdonald and Nevin, $100.

"From all indications building will be on the increase in Richmond throughout the summer and the fall," said Wierds. "The permits issued thus far this month are nearly twice the number issued during all of last month and it is very likely that the building permits will continue to increase."

A pleasing entertainment, followed by informal dancing, was given last evening at Woodmen hall by Log Cabin Camp, W. O. W., which was attended by a large number of Woodmen and their families and friends.

One of the principal parts of the program was the showing of the motion picture, "The Woodman," which depicted the benefits to be derived from this fraternal organization. The picture, which is sponsored by the head camp, was shown under the direction of George H. Ellis. It made a deep impression on the audience.

The following numbers were given on the program: Singing of "America" and saluting the flag by the company; a recitation by Mrs. O. Hollenbaugh; a Russian dance by Emma Meyers; a vocal solo by Miss Mary Thompson, and "The Woodman."

The entertainment was in charge of a committee of which H. B. Hollenbaugh was chairman, assisted by George T. Black and J. C. Thornton.

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I.—Samson and Sarah Traylor, with their two children, Josiah and Betsey, travel by wagon from their home in Vergennes, Vt., to the West, the land of plenty. Their destination is the Country of the Sangamon, in Illinois.

CHAPTER II.—At Niagara Falls they meet a party of immigrants, among them a youth named John McNeil, who also decides to go to the Sangamon country. All of the party suffer from fever and ague. Sarah's ministrations save the life of a youth, Harry Needles, in the last stages of fever, and he accompanies the Traylors. They reach New Salem, Illinois, and are welcomed by young "Abe" Lincoln.

CHAPTER III.—Among the Traylors' first acquaintances are Lincoln's friends, Jack Kelso and his pretty daughter Bim, 16 years of age.

CHAPTER IV.—Samson decides to locate at New Salem, and begins building his house. Led by Jack Armstrong, rowdies attempt to break up the proceedings. Lincoln thrashes Armstrong. Young Harry Needles strikes Bap McNoll, of the Armstrong crowd, and McNoll threatens vengeance.

CHAPTER V.—A few days later Harry, alone, is attacked by McNoll and his gang, and would have been roughly used had not Bim driven off his assailants with a shotgun. John McNeil, the Traylors' Niagara Falls acquaintance, is markedly attentive to Ann Rutledge. Lincoln is in love with Ann, but has never had enough courage to tell her so.

CHAPTER VI. — Traylor helps two slaves, who had run away from St. Louis, to escape. Eliphalet Biggs, owner of the slaves, following them, attempts to beat up Traylor and in a fight has his arm broken.

CHAPTER VII.—Waiting for his arm to heal, Biggs meets Bim Kelso, with whom Harry Needles has fallen in love. Biggs asks for Bim's hand, but her father refuses his consent. Biggs returns to St. Louis.

CHAPTER VIII.—Bim confesses to Harry that she loves Biggs, and the youth is disconsolate. Lincoln decides to seek a seat in the legislature. He and Harry volunteer for the Black Hawk war, and leave New Salem.

of the village. He could hurl his great strength into the axhead and make a good living, but he had learned that such a use of it gave him a better appetite for sleep than study.

John McNeil, who for a short time had shared his military adventures, had become a partner of Samuel Hill in a store larger and better stocked than any the village had known. But Hill and McNeil had no need of a clerk. Roman Herndon and William Berry had opened a general store. Mr. Herndon offered to sell his interest to Abe and take notes for his pay. It was not a proposition that promised anything but loss. The community was small and there were three other stores, and there was no other "Bill" Berry, who was given to drink and dreams, as Abe knew.

Abe Lincoln had not been trained to weigh the consequences of a business enterprise. The store would give him leisure for study and New Salem could offer him nothing else save consuming toil with the ax or the saw. He could not think of leaving the little cabin village. There were Ann Rutledge and Jack Kelso and Samson Traylor and Harry Needles. Every ladder climber in the village and on the plain around it was his friend.

Upon these people who knew and respected him Abe Lincoln based his hopes. Among them he had found his vision and failure had not diminished or dimmed it. He would try again for a place in which he could serve them and if he could learn to serve Sangamon county he could learn to serve the state and, possibly, even the republic. With this thought and a rather poor regard for his own interest his name fell into bad company on the signboard of Berry and Lincoln. Before he took his place in the store he walked to Springfield and borrowed a law book from his friend Major Stuart.

The career of the firm began on a hot day late in August with Bill Berry smoking his pipe in a chair on the little veranda of the store and Abe Lincoln sprawled in the shade of a tree that partly overhung its roof, reading a law book. The face of Mr. Berry suddenly assumed a look of animation. A small, yellow dog which had been lying in repose beside him rose and growled, his hair rising, and with a little cry of alarm and astonishment fled under the store.

"Here comes Steve Nuckles on his old mare with a lion following him," said Berry. "If we ain't careful we'll git prayed for plenty."

"If the customers don't come faster I reckon we'll need it," said Abe.

"Howdy," said the minister as he stopped at the hitching bar, dismounted and tied his mare. "Don't be skeered o' this 'ere dog. He were tied when I left home but he chawed his rope an' come a'ter me. I reckon if nobody feeds him he'll patter back tonight. Any plug tobacco?"

"A backload of it," said Berry, going into the store to wait on the minister.

When they came out the latter carved off a corner of the plug with his jack-knife, put it into his mouth and sat down on the doorstep.

"Where do Samson Traylor live?"

Abe took him to the road and pointed the way.

"There be goin' to be a raid," said Nuckles. "I reckon, by all I've heard, it'll come on tonight."

"A raid! Who's going to be raided?" Abe asked.

"Them Traylor folks. Thar be a St. Louis man, name o' Biggs, done stirred up the folks from Missourey and Tennessee on the south road 'bout the Yankee who holps the niggers out o' bondage. They be goin' to do some regulatin' tonight. Ol Satan'll break loose. Ef you don't wa'ch out they'll come over an' burn his house sartin."

"We'll watch out," said Abe. "They don't know Traylor. He's one of the best men in this county."

"I've heered he were a he man an' a right powerful, God-fearin' man," said the minister.

"He's one of the best men that ever came to this country and any one that wants to try his strength is welcome to; I don't," said Abe. "Are you going over there?"

"I were goin' to warn 'em an' help 'em ef I cain."

"Well, go on, but don't stir 'em up," Abe cautioned him. "Don't say a word about the raid. I'll be over there with some other fellers soon after sundown. We'll just tell 'em it's a he party come over for a story-tellin' an' a rassle. I reckon we'll have some fun. Ride on over and take supper with 'em. They're worth knowing."

In a few minutes the minister mounted his horse and rode away followed by his big dog.

"If I was you I wouldn't go," said Berry.

"Why not?"

"It'll hurt trade. Let the rest of Traylor's friends go over. There's enough of 'em."

"We must all stand as one man for law and order," said Abe. "If we don't there won't be any."

As soon as Abe had had his supper he went from house to house and asked the men to come to his store for a piece of important business. When they had come he told them what was in the wind. Soon after that hour Abe and Philemon Morris, and Alexander Ferguson, and Martin Waddell and Robert Johnson and Joshua Miller and Jack Kelso and Samuel Hill and John McNeil set out for the Traylor cabin. Samson greeted the party with a look of surprise.

"Have you come out to hang me?" he asked.

"No just to hang around ye," said Abe.

"This time it's a heart warmin'," Jack Kelso averred. "We left our wives at home so that we could pay our compliments to Mrs. Traylor without reserve, knowing you to be a man above jealousy."

"It's what we call a he party, on the prairies," said Ferguson. "For one thing I wanted to see Abe and the minister have a rassle."

The Reverend Stephen Nuckles stood in front of the door with Sarah and Harry and the children. He was a famous wrestler.

"I cain't rassle like I used to could, but I be willin' to give ye a try, Abe," said the minister.

"You'd better save your strength for ol' Satan," said Abe.

"Go on, Abe," the others urged. "Give him a try."

Abe modestly stepped forward. In the last year he had grown less inclined to that kind of fun. The men took hold of each other, collar and elbow. They parried with their feet

El Cerrito Scene of Bold Hold-Up

While the men were in the act of searching Milne, his wife appeared from the living rooms in the rear, and upon realizing what was going on, screamed, and then ran.

Her shouts roused Joe Chevotawith, who conducts a shoe repair shop next door, and resides upstairs ,and coming down and entering the soft drink place by the rear door grabbed the gun of one of the bandits and a hand to hand struggle ensued. The footpad jerked away, and attempted to fire at the shoemaker, but the cartridge did not explode.

The bandit's companion then covered Chevotawith, and he was searched, and $40 was taken.

The footpads backed out of the door, making threats as they left, jumped into an automobile, and speeded away towards Oakland.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or have Bladder trouble

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary diorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat, and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acid in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful efferescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

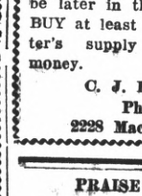
THROAT TROUBLE CURED



Oakland, Nov. 1, 1920. To whom it May Concern:
I suffered from throat trouble for 15 years, during which time I could neither eat nor swallow without pain. I became very weak and was unable to work for months. I had numerous doctors and then tried a Throat specialist, who told me that my trouble was due to the blood. He advised me to take blood medicine. Thereupon my brother, who had been cured of Stomach Trouble by the FONG WAN HERBS, urged me to try them. After drinking the herbs for 15 weeks, I felt entirely well. I have since gained 25pounds. It is 10 months since I took the herbs, and I am now giving this testimonial to let the public know that any sufferer should try the FONG WAN HERBS. I am a watchman for the California Food Specialties Co.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR LOOK YOUNG PRETTY

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally That Nobody Can Tell

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a itme. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage ad Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brngs back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Statements by Daughter Puts Father Behind Bars

a complaint be sworn to against Kieffer. The complaining witness is Inspector B. V. Shirley.

After much questioning by the officers at Martinez the girl broke down and confessed that her father had had illicit relations with her. It is said that the result of an examination made by a doctor at the county seat bears out the confession made by the girl.

Kieffer has been an employee of the Santa Fe railroad for some time.

JUMP TO THE TOP

Any subscriber who would pay their subscription for four years would give their favorite conteestant 320,000 votes; more than enough votes to make a new leader in the race and plenty of votes to make a leader out of an entirely new entry. START TODAY.

With the more aggressive contestants closely bunched and the candidates with lower scores but a little behind the pace makers, the participants in the Record-Herald $5,000 "Everybody Wins" campaign are preparing for a "whirlwind first period finish.

Candidates in the race for the big touring cars have reached the turn, maneuvered themselves into position for the final go and from now on to the close of the big vote period, 10 o'clock Monday night, July 25th, will be battling for supremacy under whip and spur.

Last Chance for Big Votes

Ten o'clock, Monday night, July 25th, is positively your last chance to enter subscriptions and secure the maximum number of votes allowed for each subscription.

Never again after this time will it be possible to get the full voting power on subscriptions. This is fair warning. If you entertain any desire whatever of being declared the winner of one of those splendid big touring cars, to be awarded in just a few weeks, do not fail to turn in every available subscription to your account before the close of the first period.

Not to do so simply means that you will have to increase your efforts during the remainder of the race to make up for lost ground. A few long term subscriptions NOW may be the very ones needed to "clinch" the biggest of prizes; they could hardly help but win one of the larger awards.

The crucial test is now at hand. If you ever intend to do anything BIG in this race DO IT NOW. Instead of being in second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth or seventh place (or further down on the list) GET UP AT THE TOP AND STAY there. Now is the time to make reasonably certain of the prizes you most desire.

REMEMBER, 450,000 votes are allowed on every five-year subscription the next two weeks while after which time the second period starts, whereby they take a very large decrease. And after the close of the "second period," there is still another big decrease in the number of votes given for such subscriptions.

These are the days to get busy—the work you do this big vote period COUNTS and PILES UP VOTES MIGHTY QUICK.

If you don't see what you want advertised in these columns, run a class ad and you'll get it.

Acantha Making Plans for Annual Grand Dance

At the next regular meeting, in July, an initiation will be held. Plans were discussed for the annual grand ball, the committee for which is composed of officers of the lodge, with Mrs. Ruth Newcomb for chairman.

STATED MEETING DEGREE POCOHONTAS WEDNESDAY

Onetah Council No. 96, Degree of Pocohontas will hold a special stated meeting, Wednesday evening, July 13, for the purpose of voting on the old funeral fund or adopt the new fund as laid down by the Great council.

The district deputy, Mrs. Hulbert, will be present on this occasion on her behalf as nominee for the Great Minnehaha of the Reservation of California.

Dealer Value and Price Value

An automobile has a certain sale value in dollars and cents, depending upon the market price.

It also has another value measured only by the satisfaction its owner gets from the use of it. The market price is no indication of this value.

This latter value is put into the car by the dealer who sells it. His readiness and ability to serve the car owner makes this value little or great.

Our organization is built up to serve, as well as to sell.
